New Library Plan Book Checking Methods Revamped; Open Stack Policy To Be Continued

Library officials disclosed this week that a checking service will be established at the exit of the main library in an attempt to eliminate the unconventional borrowing of library materials which has caused annoyance to both students and faculty in the past.

The open-shelf policy was adopted by the library in 1950 to make the books immediately accessible to the student body. Before that time, the books were kept in closed stacks which only librarians and faculty members were permitted to enter.

Education leaders throughout the country have acclaimed the educational value of open shelves. Main benefits cited include: 1. Students can quickly examine the entire range of books on a particular subject in which they are interested. 2. Borrowing during leisure time is facilitated. 3. Time spent in consulting the card catalog and waiting in line for books to be paged is reduced to a minimum.

The present open-shelf policy has produced only one important disadvantage in that a few irresponsible students have taken books from the library without charging them at the loan desk. The annoyance which results from not being able to locate needed volumes for both students and faculty, and the permanent property loss to the library are now deemed sufficiently serious to require corrective action.

The cooperation of both students and faculty members will make it possible to retain the open stacks with the attendant advantages and help to eliminate the principal disadvantage.

The procedure for Tuesday's to the loan desk clear for outgoing by library officials as follows: A railing will be placed in the passage in front of the loan desk in the main library. When entering please bear to the left of the rail in order to keep the space next to the loan desk clear for outgoing traffic.

When you leave the library, bear to the left of the rail and stop at the checking station. Please display books and briefcases, in order that the attendant can verify that all library materials have been properly charged. Having materials ready for immediate inspection, with library books open to show the date due slip in the front, will reduce the checking process to a matter of seconds.

Board Of Directors Okays Plans For Blood Drive And Revival Of Honor S

A Red Cross blood drive, the revitalization of the Honor S Society, and ASSFSC responsibility for the replacement of lost equipment, were the headline topics of last Tuesday's Board of Directors meeting.

Prexy Cec Riley read a letter from the Red Cross Director of Blood Procurement requesting that the college sponsor a blood drive in the near future. Last year's successful drive, highlighted by the rally which featured Dick Powell and Rhonda Fleming, was recalled and the Board's reaction to such a drive was favorable. The Rally Committee was directed to undertake arrangements for the drive, but no dates were set.

REVITALIZE HONOR S?

A move to undertake the reorganization of an active Honor S Society was made by President Riley and Dean Wells. Honor S, the school service recognition society, was directed to revise its constitution for resubmission to the C.A.A. as the first step in what appears to be a new program for recognizing leadership contributions by students.

The question of who was going to replace five stolen song leader sweaters led the Board into adopting a new general policy regarding the replacement of such losses. Henceforth the ASSFSC will not undertake the replacement of ASSFSC-purchased equipment lost or stolen through negligence, the board decided.

AND ADDED ADDENDA

The Board further moved to consider the question of allowing the Radio-TV Guild to increase the volume of its co-op news broadcasts. The board also passed a recommendation by Jack Healy asking that the ASSFSC secure night depositing privileges at the Bank of America's Stonestown branch for the receipts of new campus athletic and social events.

Paul Coleman was appointed chairman of the Publicity and Bulletin Boards Committee of the Board by President Riley.

It was also announced by Treasurer Jack Anderson that a committee of the Board of Control has been appointed to secure a new Business Manager for the ASSFSC to replace Jack Healy, newly-appointed Administrator of Student Affairs. Hal Ruby is chairman of the group.—By Bob Preble.

Coleman Heads Publicity Group

The appointment of Paul Coleman, a sophomore, as chairman of the Bulletin Board and Publicity Committee was one of the actions taken at the Board of Directors meeting on October 7.

To make sure that only campus organizations put up posters and advertisements on either the old or new campus is the duty of this committee.

Drama, Emotion, Comedy In 'Shadow And Substance'

By LAURA BOTTARO

San Francisco State's drama season is underway with plans now set for the Fall production, "Shadow and Substance," which will run October 30, 31 and November 1, 6, 7 and 8.

Mr. Jules Irving, who capably directed "Othello" last spring, holds high hopes for Paul Vincent Carroll's Irish dramatization of a battle of pride against love and humility.

THE PLOT REVOLVES

The plot revolves about stern and intolerant Canon Skerriott and his devoted, saintly servant Brigid. The play is set in modern Ireland in the same area where St. Brigid lived and died.

The legend of St. Brigid concerns her habit of "disfiguring her face in order to escape the persis-

'Shipwreck Shag' Tomorrow Evening New Campus Site Of Phi Lambda Chi Affair

The "Shipwreck Shag," Phi Lambda Chi's annual tropical dance, will be held tomorrow evening at 9 p.m. at the new campus gym. Tickets are still available in the basement of College Hall.

Tickets may also be purchased tomorrow at the door. Admission prices are 75 cents per person, or $1.25 for couples.

A seven-piece combo of State students will provide the music for the dance. A hula dancer will provide entertainment, following the dance theme.

Also following the theme is the style of dress recommended by Phi Lambda Chi: Hawaiian sport shirts for the men and similar print dresses for the women. Several members of the sorority will wear sarongs.

State's Traveling Vaudeville Show Hits Marin J.C.

S. F. State's rally committee hit the vaudeville circuit Wednesday, performing a number of acts at the College of Marin.

The number that drew most attention from the Mariners, according to participants, was a radio takeoff on a private detective show starring Len Hanson, Gayle Murray, Tom Barker and Sonny Mitchell.

Norry Volk's piano and singing, Barbara Ebner's singing, Irving Israel's pantomime, and the dancing of Marilyn De Vito and Rachel Reyes rounded out the program. Each number met with heavy applause, according to emcee DeVon Stanfield.

Stanfield repeated his last year's Charleston routine, picking a girl out of the audience for a partner. The Gator jazz band provided appropriate music, and performed several other numbers as well.

TALENT SIGN-UP

All talented students are urged to sign up at hut 4B. Their services are requested for high school orientation rallies, visits to veteran hospitals, exchange rallies, and rallies here at State.

RALLY COMMITTEE MEETING TUESDAY

A highly important rally committee meeting is set for next Tuesday, October 14, in 210 Anderson Hall at 8 sharp. Attendance is obligatory to all members of the rally committee.

Frosh Class Elections On Oct. 23, 24

General elections for the Freshmen class officers will be held on October 23 and 24 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The polls will be located in the corrective room of the Rec center at the old campus, and in the main foyer of the men's gym, at the new campus.

Offices open for petition include president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, representatives at large, two under 16 units and one representative at large under 32 units.

Petitions for office must be filed in the business office of the Associated Students, Hut 4A. Accompanying each petition must be a statement, not to exceed 100 words, of the candidate's qualifications.

A copy of the rules governing the election of the freshmen class officers may be obtained in the Associated Students office.

Deferment Test Forms At Boards

Selective Service Exams Set For Dec. 5, April 23

Applications for the Dec. 4, 1952, and the April 23, 1953 administrations of the College Qualification test are now available at Selective Service local boards throughout the country.

Eligible students who intend to take this test on either date should apply at once to the nearest Selective Service local board for an application and a bulletin of information.

Following instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out his application and mail it immediately in the envelope provided. Applications for the December 4 test must be postmarked by midnight, November 1, 1952. Applications postmarked after midnight cannot be accepted for the December test.

To be eligible to apply for the college deferment test a student must (1) intend to request deferment as a student; (2) be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction; and (3) must not previously have taken the Selective Service College Qualification test.

A score of 70 or above is needed to pass the test. The two forthcoming tests mark the eighth and ninth in the program. In the first series of tests 64 percent of the students achieved a score of 70 or better, 58 per cent passed the second series of tests. The tests in all three series are equivalent in difficulty.

Approximately half a million students have taken the test to date.

Students who are presently deferred because of their efforts in the field of scientific research and development and the fullest possible utilization of the nation's technological resources will be de-

Reading Room Completed

Another new building on the San Francisco State new campus will be opened to student use Monday, October 13. On that date, the reading room on the first floor of the Library Building will be unlocked to new campus students.

This marks another step in the gradual change to the new campus that one day will find all students and their functions encamped on the newer edition of State college.

The reading room, under the charge of Thomas Roddy, will contain reserve books and magazines in courses taught at the new campus, including the complete science and P. E. sections. The room will be open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Many modern interior design ideas have been used, including ceilings of accoustical tile, and floors of sound-absorbant material to deaden noises and footsteps.

Although only one room is opened, tours of the entire building will be conducted soon.

Cooperation was asked of the student body in such matters as wiping their feet before they enter and restricting their meanderings to the part of the building now open.

Campus Groups Invited To Back Queen Candidate

All on-campus organizations having at least 10 male members, or any group of 10 men, are invited to sponsor a candidate for Queen of Homecoming, it was announced this week by Hal Ruby, contest chairman.

The Queen will reign over the Homecoming festivities which will be held on October 30, 31, and November 1.

Some contest rule changes have also been disclosed. This year no more than one organization may sponsor each candidate. An entry fee of $5 will be charged for each candidate so that the cost to the Associated Students for sponsoring the contest will be kept to a minimum.

Organizations planning to sponsor a candidate should reply to P. O. box 725 by October 10. Entry blanks and contest information are available in Hut 4A.

The 'Rock' Develops A Cooperative Pattern For Economical Living; $38 A Month--How?

By LOU CANNON

A pattern for economical living, student-style, is currently on trial by the membership of the Rock students cooperative association.

The RSCA, formal title for the 30 San Francisco State students who live at the unofficial student dorm on Mariposa Street and subscribe to the food plan program presently being tried there, provides its membership with room and board of $38 a month.

This phenomenal statistic — in terms of the present day cost-of-living — has been achieved by a combination of enthusiasm, leadership, and cooperation which has overcome the many problems standing in the way of a successful food cooperative. Most important of these qualities is voluntary cooperation.

When the nucleus of Rock "veterans" arrived to start the fall term, they were joined by a large number of men with no previous dormitory experience. Everyone at his own separate food. They bought bread, milk, meat, and other staples in tiny, individual amounts and paid top-dollar prices for them.

The kitchen was usually dirty. Dishes were left undone in the sink or even on the table. Both morale and finance were at a minimum.

It was then that student cooperation took over. Annoyed with the prohibitive cost of their day-to-day existence, the Rocksters banded together and set about making their kitchen livable. The walls received a new coat of paint. The floor and the stove were cleaned more regularly. And lastly, the food was purchased jointly in wholesale quantities.

Under the leadership of assistant manager Mark E. Goldes, a freezer has been rented from a major company at nominal cost. Day-old bread has been purchased regularly at half price. Milk has been delivered wholesale in two-gallon cans at enormous savings. Regular menu guides have been prepared and posted to avoid wastage.

But most important of all, perhaps, from the standpoint of Rock morale is the elimination of the kitchen police system.

In previous years the small, independent cooking groups which existed had found KP a major bone of contention. Under this system the work piled up on two people for a week at a stretch, while the rest of the group felt no responsibility towards the co-op.

The RSCA, after struggling with the KP system initially, abandoned it in favor of a system which allocates individual responsibility for different jobs to every member of the cooperative. One man is solely in charge of bread delivery. Another has the responsibility of providing clean dish towels daily. Still another must keep the sink clean, or post the meat quotas for the day, or clean the tables.

Jobs are pin-pointed, and each of the Rocksters generally responds with enthusiasm in keeping his part of the co-op going. At present, regular cooking groups of men with similar hours are being formed with further responsibility for cooking, dishwashing, and cleaning up allocated within the groups.

Sounds almost too good, doesn't it? Eating chops, roasts, fish, eggs, bacon, cheese, and other high-cost items in abundance for $25 a month when you're already rooming for $13 a month is fantastic in 1952.

But the students in the Rock know a good thing when they see it. Their cooperative is serving as the pattern for future organizations in the dormitories to be constructed for the new San Francisco State college.

They certainly have a pattern worth following.

Civil Service Commission Offers Agricultural Assistant Positions

Junior Agricultural Assistant applications are offered by the United States Civil Service Commission until October 21 for students who expect to complete their courses by June 30, 1953.

Optional fields are listed in various parts of the United States, at a starting salary of $3,410 a year.

Qualifications and positions to be filled may be obtained after Form 5000-AB is completed. This form may be acquired from a first- or second-class post office or from civil service regional offices.

Recreation Majors Urged To Attend 11:30 Meeting

Recreation majors are urged to attend a Recreation Society meeting Friday at 11:30.

Class schedules will be discussed with Mrs. Doris Meek in the Rec building at the New Campus.

If any majors cannot possibly be present they should have someone to introduce their wishes in regard to class times.

Letters To The Editor

THE BOILER ROOM

Dear Editor:

I have just purchased a student body card (Associate Member) and am possessed of a strong feeling of social significance. Therefore, ere this feeling passes, I would like to comment on a subject about which I have been meaning to comment for at least a year. It appears to me that in spite of all the improvements noticeable in the Gater in such matters as "straight news reporting," general format, and the elimination of typographical errors, the paper has become a very dull sheet.

I'm certain that it cannot be true that students are interested only in local news items, with a preponderance of space allotted to competitive sports (in which most do not participate except vicariously) an din fraternity and sorority chit-chat (in which, again, most are not directly involved).

Especially in an election year there ought to be some rip-snorting controversial, thought-provoking stuff in the paper: rousing editorials, student comment, attacks and counter-attacks, living and breathing stuff.

Am I the only one who thinks along these lines? Can you take a poll to find out what the student body thinks about the Gater? What people read in it—what they like and dislike about it? How they would improve it?

Don't think I'm blaming you, Mr.

Editor. If blame there is it must be shared by all of us, students, faculty and administration. As Edna St. Vincent Millay once wrote: "I'd rather be quick than dead." And that is the way it ought to be with college papers.

Sincerely,

Theodore E. Treutlein
Professor of History

(Editor's note: The suggestion by Dr. Treutlein that a poll be taken to determine student reaction to the student newspaper is heartily endorsed by us. However, a staff limitation will not permit such an undertaking at the present time. An avenue, always open, by which students may offer suggestions or criticisms relative to the newspaper lies in letters to the editor.)

Tigers Invade Gator Territory Tomorrow

Coach Verducci "Fumbilitis Cured"; State 6 Point Choice Over Bengals

By HAL GRANT

The Golden Gator footballers will try to make it three in a row tomorrow afternoon when they tackle a strong Occidental Tiger eleven at Cox Stadium.

The contest, which is scheduled to get underway at 2:30 p.m., will bring the locals up against the stiffest competition that they have faced this year.

Coach Roy Denniss' Bengals boast 20 returning lettermen and among those 20 are five all-conference stars from the 1951 team that won the Southern Conference championship. They are backs, Matt Kurilich and Dick McCullough, tackle Gordon Wells, guard Al Padilla, and line-backer George McGowan.

Also back from the '51 team is Keith Noonan, 195 lb. fullback and the team's leading ground gainer last year. He carried the pigskin 56 times for a total net gain of 284 yards or an average of 5.07 yards per haul.

DEFEATED CAL AGGIES

The Angelinos bring a 1-1 record with them to Cox Stadium. They opened up the '52 season by trampling a hapless Cal Aggies team 22-6. Last week the Tigers were edged by Santa Barbara State 14-12.

In the Verducci camp this week much emphasis has been placed on studying methods of curing acute fumbilitis. Coach Joe said "We are not proud of the Bay Area fumble record (nine) that we set last week and we are doing everything within our power to correct this situation."

SMITH, FORTSON MAY PLAY

Left halfback Rudy Smith (22) and John Fortson (33) at fullback may see action tomorrow. Smith is suffering from a bruised ankle and saw only limited service against Pepperdine. Fortson has not played this year due to a muscle pull.

Outstanding players in this weeks rehearsals have been RH Harry Bremond, right half John O'Shea, fullback Johnny Fortson, and tackle Frank Ginanni.

End Al Endriss Ruled Ineligible

State's best gridball team suffered a severe loss yesterday when Al Endriss, top all-around player was declared ineligible for further collegiate competition.

Endriss, 205-pounder who handled four jobs was ruled ineligible because it was found that he signed a professional baseball contract with the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1948.

According to Coach Verducci, Endriss' loss is almost calamitous since he carried the main load on both offense and defense. As defensive safety last year Al tied the NCAA pass interception record with 13.

To make up for the loss of Endriss Coach Joe will move Harry Bremond, a hard driver despite his 145 pounds, to play safety; George Wehner, St. Mary's transfer to take over end duties; Gary Dunn to do the punting and Tony Fardella to do the kicking off.

CROSS COUNTRY

Harriers Travel To Oakland For Columbus Day Race Sunday

State's undefeated cross country team will journey to Oakland's Lake Merritt Sunday to compete in the fourth annual 3.3 mile Columbus day distance race.

The Gators will attempt to stretch their winning streak to three. Previously the locals had nabbed the Walnut Creek distance title and the big "C" meet title.

Organizations that are expected to field teams in the Columbus run are the University of California and the Petaluma Spartans running club.

At this time a general breakdown of the Gator cross country squad can be given. Holding down number one spot is "Gentleman Jim" Shettler, 1950 7.5 mile Dipsea champion, 1952 cross city title holder, and runnerup in the 1952 5.5 mile Excelsior marathon.

Second place on the State team is currently being battled for by Vic Gipson and Hal Grant. At this writing Gipson seems to have a slight edge. Vic, last year's freshmen basketball sensation, took third place in the 1952 Golden Gate Park distance run and fourth place in the 1952 Berkeley 26 mile marathon. Grant holds a fifth place trophy in the 1952 Dipsea race and a third place award in this year's 26 mile Berkeley marathon.

In the fourth slot is Thatcher Nance who is new to State this year and has been running right on the heels of Gipson and Grant. Nance will be a definite asset to

San Francisco State's Golden Gator soccer team will trot onto the field against the star-studded lineup of USF tomorrow at the upper field at 10 o'clock.

The Dons will boast one all-American and two all-conference booters at game time tomorrow. Olufunmi Osibogan, two time all-American, will go through his paces at center halfback while Jose Leon and Manny Ortiz, all-conference selections last year will also be seen on the USF squad.

State, with six returning lettermen will field a fast moving, hard-working squad with all-American mention Owen Kasaderoff stopping shots at the goal.

Soccer, a fast, bruising, and well-played game as practised by the State team and its opponents, has had trouble obtaining any degree of support from Gator fans.

Sports fans of all types would enjoy the game once they saw it, but practically no one attends the contests. The only sport of truly international proportions, soccer, if only for that reason, deserves more support from Gator fans.—By Keith Pinckney.

San Francisco State's water polo team was turned back by a strong Cal JV squad 8-1 last week in the new campus pool. Norm Stupfel scored the lone Gator tally.

Gator Jazz Band
Plays For Marin

The Gator jazz band performed a few numbers of "Le Jazz Hot" before College of Marin's weekly assembly last Wednesday.

Playing in the tradition of New Orleans-style jazz, the combo whooped it up with "Oh, Didn't He Ramble," "Down by the Riverside," "Five-Foot Two," and "Slow Drag Blues in C," the last an improvisation on the blues form.

The personnel consisted of: piano, Larry Pastori; banjo, Jerry Schimmel; tuba, Bop Knapp; trumpet, Bill Mehrwein; trombone, Warren Stockard; clarinet, Ken Timm; drums, Richard Andino.

The Gator jazz band has also performed before rallies at State and at different high schools throughout the Bay Area.

Jones Elected To Tri-O
Presidential Office

Election of officers for the Tri-Omega fraternity were held recently. The new officers are: Harry Jones, president; Clark Williams, vice president; Ron Le Roy, secretary; and Dean Stenberg, treasurer.

Three Movies On Sculpture Slated

"The unique opportunity to appreciate sculpture through motion pictures, rather than still photographs is offered to the student body and faculty of San Francisco State," announced John Gutman of the Art Department.

A series of three movies will be shown in the Frederic Burk Auditorium from 12 to 1 p.m., October 14.

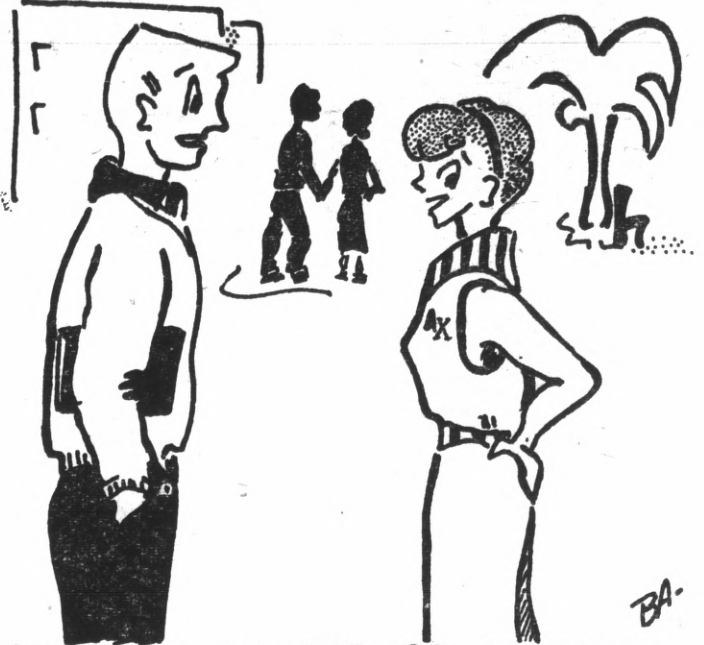

"Works of Calder," is one of the movies. Alexander Calder, an American who introduced the mobile, won first prize for sculpture at the international exhibition in Venice.

Jackson Pollack is the subject of another film. Pollack, also an American, is a leading abstract expressionist painter, belonging to the avant-garde group.

English sculptor Henry Moore shows modern sculpture in the third movie.

The Students Art Club and the Creative Arts division are, for the second time, presenting these films.—R. W.

Summer is gone—that's for sure—judging by the rain that came down in torrents Wednesday morning. The people that suffer from the change of weather are those that come from across the bay completely unprepared. The moment they hit S. F. they're surrounded, and enclosed by the blankets of fog.

Alpha Omega held their semi-annual tea last Sunday at the home of Mary Stevens. Thirteen new pledges were welcomed into the organization.

D. G. T. held a "smoker" (regaled by the wit of Phil Ryan) at their fraternity house last week. A very successful affair, which acquainted the guests with the members of Delta Gamma Tau.

A memorable joint meeting of B'n'T sorority and Tri-Omega fraternity was held on Thursday nite.

October 2. Plans were also drawn up pertaining to a dance which will be co-sponsored by the two organizations.

New B'n'T pledges for the fall semester received their pins at a tea held in Piedmont on Sunday, October 5. The girls receiving their pins included: Judy DePugh, Joan Edged, Bette Estes, Bev Greenberg, Carol King, Lorraine Maison, Marilyn Murphy, Barb Schaurpfel, and Pat Stern.

Congratulations to Bert Phillips for winning King of "Night in Wonderland." The dance, sponsored by Alpha Chi Alpha, was a tremendous success. The turnout for this event was very gratifying.

Don't forget Phi Lambda Chi's annual "Shipwreck Shag." Stag 75 cents, Drag $1.25, tomorrow night at New Campus gym. See you there!!
